

The first 2009 gathering is planned for the Saturday after Valentine's Day!

Join me for a Progressive Winter Gathering
February 21, 2009
3:00 pm

Visit 5 homes and progressively fill yourself up with good food and friendship. Beverages, sure to warm, will start you off and then appetizers, soups, salads and desserts will follow.

If you would like to join me by hosting guests at your home or teaming up with another family to provide the food at their home, please email me at huntclubsocial@hotmail.com by January 31st so I can coordinate the evening. More information will follow in early February when all responses have been received.
